> I love parties so I love getting all dolled up...

MV 1. When do you feel most free?

JF I feel the most free when I'm on the ranch back home riding my horses and listening to country music. Being around my animals gives me peace of mind.

2. What's the best gift you've ever given someone?

I'd have to say it was my friendship to my best friend because without each other I'm sure we wouldn't be here today.

3. How do you like to celebrate special occasions?

I love parties so I love getting all dolled up and decorating for that special person on a special day.

4. Who is the most important person in your life?

I'd have to say the most important people in my life are my parents, my two best friends and my animals. I couldn't just pick one.

MERRY
CHRISTMAS

5. What will always put a smile on your face?

The love of my animals will always make me smile and be happy.

6. What piece of advice would you give to up and coming adult entertainers?

Be yourself and don't let anyone change you! Get to know your craft and decide the things you wanna change about it but not because someone told you to.

7. Are you a glass half full or a glass half empty type of person?

I'm a glass half full kinda person!

8. Do you have a secret favorite fetish?

My secret fetish is "love kissing" and sexy, sensual moaning. It gets me really wet!

She knows if you've been bad or good.

BOUGHS OF NAUGHTY!

FEATURING

Jelena Jensen

LOS ANGELES,

MV 1. What is your favorite type of content to film?

JJ Any type of solo tease content. It's what I started with when I entered the adult business back in 2003 as a softcore model and it's still my favorite to this day. I just love to tease. I find it so much more erotic than being as dirty as possible or showing everything right away.

2. Where do you draw inspiration for your personal style?

I don't really draw inspiration from anywhere. I've always just been myself. But I do have to say that my style on camera is usually vastly different from my personal life. I've always been known as more of a glamour model as I come from the solo glamour days of the early 2000s. I've obviously had to look the part on camera. And now in the adult industry I'm always typecast as the MILF/ stepmom since I'm in my mid 30s, so the wardrobe for that is definitely just for shooting and not what I wear in my day to day life. I grew up a tomboy so I still wear jeans, t-shirts, boots, vans or chucks and workout clothes day to day. And I dress in black a lot. Day to day I rarely ever do my hair or wear makeup.

My ever changing hair color, which is currently mint green, is the real me though. When I first dyed it rainbow some people thought it was just a phase or something temporary. What most don't know is I used to dye my hair all different colors before I was in the business. I even used to shave my head in middle school! And I was big into the punk scene in high school as well. I got sick of having to look a certain way because of my job as a model, so for my 35th birthday I said fuck it, I'm going to look however I want! I honestly don't care what anyone thinks of it because I love changing it up and playing with colors!

MERRY
Christmas

> I just love to tease!

3. What is the secret to your sensuality?

I don't think there's any secret to it. I just express myself however it comes out. I just find slow and sensual to be sexy - it's what makes me FEEL sexy - so it's just the way it comes out.

4. What do you love about women?

I love how soft and sensual they are. How beautiful they can be both inside and out. Personality goes a long way as well. I've fallen for women before purely by the way they carry themselves and the type of person they are.

5. Can you describe your attitude towards life in 5 words or less?

Always be true to yourself.

6. Where do you see yourself in 5 years? What about 20?

This is always a difficult question because at every point in my life I would have never guessed 5+ years beforehand where I would be at that time. Life is an adventure and there are so many paths to take. In 5 years I hope to be working more in dog rescue as it's one of my passions and to just be living life to the fullest. In 20 years, who knows? I'll be 56! I'll be retired with my husband, most likely still living in California, traveling the world and hopefully still working in dog rescue.

7. Who are your heroes in real life?

Anyone who rescues animals and fights for their rights. As you can tell I'm a huge animal lover and we have to be their voice since they don't have one of their own.

8. What is something unexpected you find erotic?

Implied male gay sex. Like what you would see in a mainstream movie. I'm not really a fan of watching any actual porn, including gay porn, so it's more of the implied that I find arousing. I guess I've just been in the business too long. But whenever I see two men having sex in a mainstream movie or tv show I find it really hot. No idea why, but I do.

1. You were the winner of the MV 2017 Profile of the Year Award. What do you think makes your profile so amazing?

What an honor, first of all. I think what sets my profile apart from others is my OCD. Things being bright, cohesive and in line is important to me. I make a lot of content and I am so particular about what thumbnails are where. I get quite a bit of daily traffic on MV, and I don't want people to get bored of my profile so I like to mix it up occasionally. Rearrange content and resurface my holiday content when appropriate. I don't just do this for my video thumbnails. I am often working on my store, uploading photos and checking my wall posts. And I keep everything up to date and filled out so that people know exactly what is available from me. I just like it to be polished!

2. What three words would you use to describe your personality?

Ambitious. Charismatic. Industrious.

3. What instantly puts a smile on your face?

Emails from ManyVids that read "Congratulations! You just sold..." Seriously, I've been on MV since November 2014 and I still get giddy over every sale. It feels good to have your work appreciated, and to be supported!

4. Do you have any favorite beauty hacks you want to share?

Definitely, I love make up and all things beauty related. Some of my favorites are: before beginning throw your mascara in your bra to warm it up - it helps reduce clumpy mascara. Wearing white eyeliner on your water line then going under with black liquid liner for a crisp look that brightens your eyes up and makes them look bigger. If your eyeliner is a little dry, flick your bic (lighter) and wave it over the tip of the product, it will give it a more creamy consistency and goes on so smoothly. but make sure you let it cool a little before applying. When applying eyelashes, after the glue has dried, go over with a liquid black liner and then set it with black eye shadow that will hide any of the glue residue that looks like dried cum. LOOOL!

5. What's one thing about you your fans would be surprised to hear?

When I was younger, about age 5 or 6, I was playing outside with some friends. As kids do, we were screwing around. One of them broke a wooden broom in half and started playing catch with it. When it was thrown to me, the broom hit me in the eye. The sharp side with wooden shards poking out was the part that hit my eye. I pulled it out and my eye started gushing blood. I was rushed to emergency and thought I was going to lose my vision in that eye. I have a scar just under my eye and one right ON it, which is crazy. I had to go to school with a patch on my eye for weeks, and my parents poked fun at me and called me "pirate" the whole time. I was mortified. I don't think I have ever shared that story in my work life, but I'm so happy that these blowjob eyes are fine, with perfect 20/20 vision!

6. What's the best gift you ever received?

I have received so many great gifts! Lingerie, jewelry, makeup, books, home decor and appliances, a TV etc. It is incredibly hard to pick just one. In the summer I moved to a new place, one that has space for an office. I put some of the furniture I wanted for my office into my MV Store, and truly didn't expect anyone to purchase them. In less than 2 days, one of my supporters bought me a desk, drawer, and shelf. This set I have wanted for YEARS but never had the space for it. I couldn't believe someone wanted to help me like that. And I think about him every time I step into that room.

7. Do you have a favorite prop or costume piece that you just love?

UGHHHH I use to have this one dildo. It was uncut. It was a perfect size in length, girth, and ball size. It looked so fleshy, moved like skin when you squeezed it, and you could see details of blue veins on it. It had a suction cup and wasn't like some toys that smell and taste toxic. It was made of great materials, I loved it. So much infact, I bought a second one. Well over the years they both got messed up in one way or another and I had to throw them out. I am devastated that this toy was discontinued. THAT was my favorite item.

> “I love being smothered by balls.

8. Do you have a secret fetish?

No secrets here. But some of my fetishes include: balls, testicles, nuts, nads ... Oh, wait! Those are all the same things! I love balls, I think you catch the drift. Something about a pair of loose hanging nuts - it's just too hot to handle. I love being smothered by balls.

Indulge in more holiday treats.

What I do to relax is put a hair mask and face mask on, have a glass of wine and watch the Netflix series "Love" with my all of my animals cuddling me.

4. What are 6 beauty products you cannot leave the house without?

Yes, I love to have my toes sucked on!

8. What's the wildest party you've ever attended?

The wildest parties I've ever been to are always in Nebraska. One was a blackout party at a house a few years ago. To enter the house you had to take 3 shots at the door, then once you got inside they had kegs and a DJ in the basement. Later the police raided the place but I don't remember much of that!

1. What was the most unique custom vid you were ever asked to create?

The most unique video was a custom for someone who wanted me to act as if I was him waking up to find myself transformed into a female. I glance in the mirror and see my huge tits and curvy female body for the first time. It's shocking but then I find out my roommate was filming this and he was the one who cast the spell on me. I finish by being proud of my new body and show the world what a slut I am by offering to fuck him!

2. What do you wish more people understood about having big breasts?

It's hard living life normally with these huge boobs. Finding a bra that fits is a task, exercising is rough to say the least, and I can't sleep on my stomach. They draw attention even in baggy tops and most people don't know what colour my eyes are. I have lost some jobs because I have a nervous habit of touching them all the time. But they made it way too easy to make money by showing them off.

3. Where do you find your inspiration to create your vids?

My regular customers and friends give me inspiration. I am so busy with customs which are 90% of my videos.

4. How would you describe your style?

My style when I am not creating content is very laid back. Leggings are my best friend and my long hair is most likely in a top knot messy bun. I wear very minimal makeup but I do love small crop tops and ripped looking clothing.

5. What do you like about being an MV Girl?

I like everything about being an MV Star! This is how I make a comfortable living and I love being so flexible with my schedule. I run my life by how I'm feeling so if I have a bad day I can take the day off. I am helping my brother fight cancer and ManyVids has allowed me to be his caregiver. I am so grateful.

6. What are your favorite beauty products to use?

I am a beauty professional and I love way too many products and beauty routines to narrow it down.

7. What is your favorite type of content to create?

I love and get excitement from being in public and pushing the limits! Soon I will create some of my own videos and you will see.

8. What are your goals for the future?

My goals for the future are simple: stay happy, get my family healthy, and grow my brand and discover more about myself. I also plan on being swept off my feet and marrying rich! Bahahaha!

9. How would you love to spend New Year's Eve?

My perfect New Year's would be eating at my fav restaurant in Vegas then giving a bomb ass blowjob and getting blasted in the face right on the countdown. BOOM, goals!

The party doesn't stop at midnight!

A BRIGHT FUTURE

FEATURING

Lena Paul

MONTREAL,

MV 1. Are you a glass half full or a glass half empty kind of person?

LP I'm a "the glass is 50% full" type person! I strive to look for how things actually are rather than how I want them to be.

2. What always puts a smile on your face?

Good food, good dick, and good music. I'm a total hedonist.

3. How has working in adult entertainment transformed you?

I worked in finance/startups prior to pornography and ironically I feel more liberated from sexual harassment in sex work. Somehow putting everything out there on the table takes away a lot of the stigma. I feel very empowered as a small business owner to pursue my goals due to sex work.

“

I'm a total hedonist.

4. How would you describe your style? Who is your style inspiration?

Very classic. I love classic silhouettes from the 40s and 50s, with women like Katharine Hepburn and her androgyny on one end of the spectrum and women like hyper feminine Jayne Mansfield on the other but most of all I just try to tastefully flatter my body while still maintaining comfort. I'm very unmotivated by fashion except as it relates to my work. It has been hilarious and delightful to experiment with "stripper looks" as a result of porn, especially as sex workers have become more mainstream like Cardi B and the Kardashians.

5. You have a Fund Me Campaign running to buy your first ever cosplay outfit. What inspired you to get into cosplay?

I love gamer culture! I've never cosplayed but sex work has empowered me to try all kinds of performing art forms I'd never considered myself "worthy" of trying before.

6. What do you do on your days off?

I love to cook, read, workout, play video games, and just generally be a home body. I work so much all the time that my days off are sacred. I want no disturbances!

7. What are your favorite types of gifts to receive?

Art and books! Homemade or prints that remind people of me. I think it's a very intimate kind of gift.

8. What is the sexiest thing anyone has ever said to you?

“I want you to sit on my face” is what my husband, performer Nathan Red, said to me in lieu of “hello” on our first meeting. It would have sounded so douchey coming from anyone else, but I could tell that literally all he wanted to do was make me feel good all the time.

9. What is something that people would be surprised to find out turns you on?

It’s so cliche but being ignored and playing hard to get drive my crazy. Especially after becoming a somewhat notable sex worker, my reputation tends to precede me. I get really turned on when people are respectful and don’t try to rush touching me just because they take it for granted..

10. What is your ultimate guilty pleasure?

Smoking. It’s disgusting, it’s truly a guilty pleasure and I maybe have a cigar once or twice a year and a cigarette even less frequently. But if I’m stressed out of my mind, it’s what I crave. Don’t judge me!

Start the new year off right.
